

The Mission Field Is on the Sports Fields

Your community's families are at the ballfields every weekend. One tent puts your church there.

Travel sports is one of the biggest reasons young families vanish from Sunday services — and every weekend it gathers them, all day, in one place, relaxed and open. Travel Ball Church turns the schedule that empties pews into the mission field.

The reach, honestly compared

Unique young athletes engaged per year. TBC figures from actual Central Florida tent attendance since 2024; parents add ~20% more adults reached. FCA huddle sizes vary widely by campus.

That's the equivalent of 53 years of youth group... from one tent, in 1 year

Where else on your church calendar can you stand in front of 10,575 kids a year?

Why the fields are fertile ground

Whole families, for whole days.

Parents, siblings, and grandparents are there six to ten hours, with long gaps between games and nothing to do but talk.

They come back every weekend.

Not a one-time outreach... the same families, week after week, all season. That's how real relationships and real Gospel conversations get built.

Jesus went to where people were.

Wells, shorelines, tax booths. The command is "go", and this is where your community has gone.

It's proven — and it's simple

This season:

6,000+ athletes • 125 Bibles placed • 60 devotions led • 125 prayers offered

One tent. One trained person.

Giveaways draw families in; your chapter leader offers conversation, a Bible, a devotion, and prayer with anyone who wants it. No stage, no pressure... presence. TBC provides the complete starter kit: tent, materials, training, and playbook. Your church provides the heart.

This takes nothing away from Sunday school, VBS, or FCA; those disciple the kids you already have. TBC reaches the families you don't.

TRAVEL BALL CHURCH

Choosing Your Chapter

A chapter scales to what your church can carry. Two choices: the rhythm (how often) and the staffing (who runs the tent).

1. THE RHYTHM: how many weekends you run

ANCHOR	SATURDAY	SEASON	EVENT
One sport's season ~10,575 kids engaged / year	Most Saturdays ~5,550 kids engaged / year	One sport's season ~4,000 kids engaged / year	Big tournaments only ~2,000 kids engaged / year

Anchor is the full model — the equivalent of 53 years of youth group from one tent.

2. THE STAFFING: who runs the tent (the chapter's cost, not National's)

VOLUNTEER(S) A passionate layperson leads	YOUTH PASTOR Saturday ministry, more consistent	MINISTRY TEAM A dedicated ministry team to cover weekends	FULL-TIME PASTOR Fulllest expression
--	--	--	---

NATIONAL COVERS THE STARTER KIT → the tent, materials, and setup to launch. The chapter carries the labor model it chooses above.

A chapter is a partnership. Here's what we carry, and what the church carries.

TBC NATIONAL / NFF PROVIDES

- ✓ The proven model
The tent ministry, the weekend playbook, the whole approach, already working.
- ✓ The starter kit
Tent, materials, and setup to launch your first weekends.
- ✓ Training
We train your people on how to run the tent and carry the mission.
- ✓ The brand & materials
TBC identity, giveaways, Bibles, devotion materials, signage.
- ✓ The safety framework
MinistrySafe standards and the child-protection framework everyone follows.

THE CHAPTER (YOUR CHURCH) OWNS

- The people
The tent leader and helpers, staffed at the labor model you choose.
- The local leadership
The chapter is the contracting party for its own staffing.
- Local relationships
Connections to leagues, tournaments, and the families in your community.
- Running the weekends
Showing up, setting up, and carrying the ministry on the field.
- Background checks
Ensuring every adult clears MinistrySafe and background screening.

NEXT STEPS

- 1) Send Documentation.
- 2) Review Documentation
- 3) Meet to discuss any feedback
- 4) Finalize agreement
- 5) Kevin comes to help launch first weekend

Let's put a tent at the fields your families are already on.
